People, shills and patriots alike, keep focusing on martial law and/or the Insurrection Act, but they are missing the point even tho Trump repeatedly insists (truthfully) that he isnt going that route. Those methods are weak, this is President Trump we are talking about: Trump is not weak.

China has committed blatant acts of war against the United States of America. Trump is going to declare WAR. Everybody who has been aiding and abetting China in an attempt to overthrow the rightful government of the United States of America, is going to be declared an enemy combatant and treated accordingly. No martial law, no Insurrection Act. Trump will have 100 days to mop the floor with these treasonous rats, who everybody in America rightfully hates right now, and there is fuck all the dems, or the gop, or together the entire Congress, or rotten judges, can do about it. The United States Constitution is crystal clear on this: the POTUS can wage war for 100 days and nobody can do fuck all to him for it. Enemy combatants get military tribunals. High treason gets the mother fucking rope.

This is war

jfc I really hope there's a grand plan and that our government isn't handed over to the CCP through Biden. Tensions are at an all-time high in the culture war and between that and COVID bullshit, people are liable to start getting violent. I don't want to see my countrymen becoming domestic terrorists. I don't want to see violence pouring into the streets (more than it has already). I want these evil corrupt fucks behind bars and for the country to heal. I want the propagandists in the mainstream media to stop turning lefties into radical fucking morons. I just want this to end. Please don't turn this into a civil war by legitimizing this blatantly fraudulent election.

got a fake dream last night, they made me experience a shitty one about enlisting in the millitary, i know they want me but they don't have much to offer and i want something important involving space saucer, got the response that space saucer were obsolete and now their anti-gravity engines allow space for cofee machine.

So about that tens of millions that need to be removed, many people hope it's going the way it should.
Should we prepare to see internment camps erected domestically as we go on war footing, and not just for chinese demographic?
A lot of turkish, iranian, arab middle eastern elements that need to get intern'd.

So, skull guy, what previous predictions have you correctly made, and why not use a tripcode if you truly are someone who knows some things? Do you prefer to maintain the ambiguity?

Also, are you sure we are going to see some interesting things? Trump doesn't seem like he's going to be leaving the white house and I trust that he has a plan. We are obviously in wartime and I'll do what I can to keep my city safe from enemies foreign and domestic, if and when this comes to blows.

I'm just having a happening withdrawal, the silence has been gnawing at me. Thanks!

I believe that they torture you because you're openly hostile and not admitting and/or realising the force at play and the kind of game we all are playing,
Don't take any of this seriously or you might start to get demoralized at the possibility of defeat and that is when you die inside.
i'm kind of tipsy from my wine, but, remember that ear ringing aren't smart dust but higher entitity/living spirit roaming this earth and you are being judged ALL the time if you're being monitored, stop masturbating and start retaining your sexual energy, invest it with breath work into your different body, that is physical, emotional, intellectual and etheric.

Okay so it's not concretely written, more of a legal grey area thanks to a combination of the Insurrection Act, the Patriot Act, and the War Powers Act. By definition, unconstitutional, but it seems rules are out the window now anyways. Essentially, by invoking the Insurrection Act and putting the country under a stage of martial law, the president would be able to usurp enough power from the other two branches of government to throttle the normal process of inaugurating a new president. It sounds highly controversial but you can find plenty of articles on it.

I just added an update. Basically, it sounds like declaring martial law, not war, opens a can of worms in terms of legal grey areas regarding presidential authorities. It sound like he potentially could, but would give his opponents ample grounds to cry sedition. He would need a bulletproof defense to do such a thing. Like say, idk, proving that half of congress is betraying the country for China's benefit.

https://nypost.com/2020/12/24/jon-ossoff-concealing-production-company-financial-docs-report/
"Despite being a crusader for transparency on the campaign trail, Georgia Democratic Senate candidate Jon Ossoff is refusing to disclose information about his personal finances and investments, according to a new report.

Ossoff has been silent on the $250,000 loan he made to the company when he became CEO at age 26 in 2013, or the undisclosed donation he made when he became majority owner, the Washington Post reported Wednesday.

Questions have also arisen over how much money the Democratic darling has accepted from China and Qatar after he brokered deals with a Hong Kong news agency and Qatar-backed Al Jazeera to air two of his films on the Islamic State.

Ossoff maintained that his films were sold to Al Jazeera English, not the Arabic branch, and that he only received $1,000 in broadcast rights from the Hong Kong company, which Perdue alleged was “a Communist Chinese news agency.”
The Senate hopeful has refused to provide further financial documents pertaining to the company to the Washington Post, calling them “confidential.” "

Yeah. With the Muller hoax, at least the ones doing the grifting were not government officials - they were the same type of merch hawkers and fake news peddlers that are currently selling bullshit to Qoomers. With this shit, it's the President of the United States trying to draw this shit out as long as possible so he and his big-dollar donors don't have to pay his 2020 campaign debts.

It's also worse because there's some truth here. Washington DC is full of filthy, degenerate, sexually immoral, corrupt assholes. And the election was obviously stolen by means of grassroots fraud in Atlanta, Philadelphia and Detroit (that is, individual poll workers and local officials doing borderline or slightly-over-the-line illegal stuff to ensure the maximum number of votes for Biden in those cities to offset Trump's day-of victory margin). So to see Trump and his people milking desperate, vulnerable, often older people - who just want to be represented for once in their shit-filled lives - with fake and gay shit while there is an actual case to be made... sickening.

Yet Re.mote Pupper predicted Trump tweeting WELI with the unusual I was a signal to Giuliani and it was, and Red Skull has haughtily shunned the Pupper since. Pupper wanted no fame and was not out to outshine RS, only adding credible Intel. RS's response told RP everything RP needed to know. And now RP reveals nothing on this Mongolian throat singing forum because, you know, why dare to outsing the declared sole diva? Out of respect I will exit the thread, because after all, it's his. But he knows what he did and he knows what it was. So does God. So does DARPA.

Remember in "the Lord of the ring", the answer of the Great elder Ent to the question "on who's side are you" to which he replied "side ? i'm on no one side since nobody is on my side".

You know who else: Comey. I've had my eye on him for years now. Ever since the HRC "no intent", and FBIanon, I've been watching his moves.
>If I were 2015 Trump, Comey would have been the greatest asset for me to make deals with...for he knew EVERY secret ever 86th for DS purposes.
▪it will be interesting to see who has simply been a DS asset, and, who has been playing them all along. Kek!
